

CURRICULUM VITAE

LARS G. JOSEFSSON

Personal

Born in Ulricehamn, Sweden, on October 29, 1950

Married to Gunni Josefsson, four children, Terese, Magnus, Jesper, Peter

Education

1969, Gymnasium (High School), Ulricehamn

1973, Chalmers University of Technology, Master of Science in Applied Physics

Military Services

1971 (summer), 1973/74, Swedish Army, Signal Corps, Sgt.

Professional Career

1974 LM Ericsson, MI-Division, Systems Engineer and subsequently several managerial positions

1983 Ericsson Radio Systems, General Manager Fire Control Radar
(LM Ericsson MI-Division and SRA merged into Ericsson Radio Systems)

1984 Chemtronics, President

1985 Ericsson Radio Systems, General Manager Radar Sector

1987 Ericsson Radio Systems, Vice President & General Manager Surface Sensor Division

1989 Ericsson Radar Electronics, Vice President & General Manager Surface Sensor Division (Ericsson Radar Electronics formed through demerger from Ericsson Radio Systems)

1991 Ericsson Radar Electronics, Corporate Marketing Director and Vice President & General Manager Surface Sensor Division

1993 Schrack Telecom AG, Vienna Austria, President, subsequently changed names to Ericsson Schrack AG (1994) and Ericsson Austria (1996)

1997 Celsius AB, President and CEO

2000 Saab AB, Senior Executive Vice President (Saab acquired Celsius)

2000 Vattenfall AB, President and CEO

Management Training

1972-92 Ericsson Management Institute, various courses

1986 IMEDE, Lausanne, Switzerland, Program for Executive Development

Board Membership

Böhler-Uddeholm AG, Vienna Austria

Swedenergy,

Vattenfall Europe AG, Hamburg, Germany (Chairman)

Other Achievements

Holder of a number of patents in radar system design

Member of the Royal Swedish Academy of War Sciences since 1988

Member of the Royal Swedish Society of Naval Sciences (Kungl. Örlogsmannasällskapet) since 1998

Personal Interests

Tennis, Skiing, Hunting