General information for journalists:

In light of major media interest, limited space available, and limited transportation capacities we request your understanding of the fact that the partner programme can be covered by a limited number of journalists only.

Identification:	The G8 accreditation badge as well as supplementary badge P1 "Partner programme" are required to cover the partner programme. The supplementary badge is valid only when worn together with the G8 accreditation badge.
Scheduling conflict:	G8 main programme
Security check:	08.45 hrs
Departure time:	09:00 hrs
	Transportation will be provided by helicopter and bus.
	Journalists who arrive at the pool meeting point later than the indicated lead and departure times will not be able to cover the partner programme.

Access will be in groups accompanied by Press and Information Office guides. The pool meeting point is in the security tent next to the Hotel Morada nearby the International Press Centre. You will be required to go through a security check and any bags you may be carrying will be inspected. There will also be a check of G8 accreditation and supplementary badges.
